

“Signs” of Change in Downtown Harrison

At last, On Harrison Avenue, near the corner of Halstead Avenue the long awaited removal of the unsightly signs.

turning point for this town. This is one piece of the puzzle to make our town as beautiful on the outside as it is on the inside. They say don't judge a book by its cover, but if it doesn't look good on the outside you probably won't go in!
Helen Pesce

BEFORE

Work in progress

The Landlord, who has been pondering the sign change for some time has graciously complied with the recent building code changes enforced by the town and to forever change the seedy looking façade. The landlord has hired Nick Mumolo at 914SIGNS.COM and also a resident of Harrison, for this historical moment. This certainly is a